Class Prophecy

Good evening ladies and gentlemen. I am speaking to you from the ball room in the Talcott City Hall. We have set up our equipment on this cold December day to cover this great inaugural ball of 1973. The guests are beginning to come into the City Hall now, and the Governor is due to be here in a very few minutes. While we are waiting for his arrival, I will give you a rundown on some of the guests.

One of the first to arrive in Talcott was MARY ALICE NELSON, dress designer, now working at Madam Lou's in Paris. We hear that she designed the dress the Governor's wife will be wearing tonight. Alice is escorted by General DAVID HONAKER, instructor at West Point Academy.

There seems to be a bit of confusion outside the door, the Governor must be arriving. JAMES WICKLINE and RANDY RATLIFF, secret service men have just entered the room to clear the way for the Governor. Here he is! Yes, entering the room, bowing and smiling, is Governor RICHARD EDWARDS with his wife, the former CLARA DILLON.

We are fortunate to have some of Hollywood's brightest stars back for the inauguration of their old classmate. Here is academy award winner for her performance in "Went With the Breeze," SYLVIA TAYLOR, with her is another well known movie personality, LOUISE MEADOWS, star of the sensational new film "Mommy-O".

MARY CAROL SYDENSTRICKER, record-breaking Carter's Little Liver Pill saleswoman and DELMA ATKINS, voice teacher at Dogpatch College have just arrived and are greeting old friends. Beware! You may be enrolled in Dogpatch College or become a liver pill addict. NORMA ELLISON, corset model at Sputnik Junction, and her current escort NORVIN HEDRICK, the bouncer at the Panther, have just come in from outer space to join us tonight.

This evening we will have the pleasure of hearing the "Four Flats," the famous quartet composed of J. W. BOONE, HERMAN LIVELY, VIRGINIA BUCKLAND, AND DONZIE EPLING.

Walking across the left side of the floor is Commodore HOMER JARRELL, the skipper of the U. S. S. Pile of Junk. He has some of his crew with him---FONDA WHANGER, MELBA WYANT AND CARMEN REED. Even the Glorious Apollo would be jealous of his collection of beauty.

Next we see JIM LIVELY, who eats two by fours and spits sawdust, and JERRY EDWARDS, president of the National Baby-Sitters Association. With them is BOBBY BUCKLAND, History Professor at the University of Bagdad.

FRANKLIN MEADOR, the recent discoverer of the wonder drug Six Roses, has just arrived with PERRY BOONE, who demonstrates starch shampoo. And last but not least here comes JEROL BUCKLAND, coach of the 1972 Rose Bowl Winners, to join the festivities here at the City Hall.

Our time is up, so this is Yours Truly in the City Hall returning you to our studios at T. H. S.

Senior Class Officers

Class History

In the fall of 1954, thirty eight curious freshmen entered the halls of Talcott High School. Our Sponsors were Mr. Robert E. Via and Miss Mary Eleanor Neeley. We choose as our officers: David Honaker, Norvin Hedrick, Fonda Whanger and Patricia Brookman. As our Motto we had: "If we fail to prepare, we prepare to fail." Our flower was the Red Rose and our colors were Blue and White.

Our sophomore year there were 38 of us. Our sponsor was Mr. Robert E. Via. Our officers were: Richard Edwards, Gerald Edwards, Alice Nelson and Louise Meadows. Our motto was: "If we fail to prepare we prepare to fail." Our colors were Blue and White and the flower was the Red Rose.

As Juniors there were 31 of us. Our sponsor was Mr. Robert E. Via. The officers were Norvin Hedrick, Fonda Whanger, Gerald Edwards and Richard Edwards. Our motto was "If we fail to prepare, we prepare to fail." Our flower was the White Carnation and our colors were Blue and White. We had our Junior Play, "A Feudin' Over Yonder." Also the Junior-Senior Banquet.

Our senior year has now arrived. There are 26 of us. Our sponsor is still Mr. Robert E. Via. Our officers are President: Norvin Hedrick, Vice President: Richard Edwards, Secretary: David Honaker, Jr., and Treasurer: Gerald Edwards. Our Motto is "If we fail to prepare, we prepare to fail." Our flower is the White Carnation and our colors are Blue and White. We are looking forward to our play and the Junior-Senior Banquet.
